AN ITCHING PALM

About the Bout—Spring Plowing—House Breaking—A Visit to Bridgeport—The Boko Case—Library Report.

The recent boxing bout in town, at Perry's Hall, which drew a good many of the guild from out of town, appears to have caused a ripple of excitement in circles which do not believe in such exhibitions. It is pretty well understood that the entertainment was well within the law, and that those who participated did not even need a permit from the selectmen as the matter is regulated by the state law.

If there was any "spring plowing" in town yesterday it was done with snow plows. And the man in Southport who a few days ago planted peas, says he expects at least to raise a crop of snowballs.

Last Wednesday night some time after midnight, the residence of Mr. J. Elting Deyo, on Elliott street was entered by burglars, who ransacked the lower rooms of the house. The inmates who were sleeping above were not awakened. The thief gained access to the house through a front window. Fortunately he found little in the lower rooms which he cared to take away, save a lady's purse, a bunch of trolley tickets and a front window. William Kelley has been working at the depot for a few days.

The case of John Boko, which came up before Justice Wakeman, on Wednesday, who was charged with selling intoxicating liquors without a license, was nolleed, owing to circumstances which the prosecution could not control.

A number of local people including Supt. Wheatley, Justice Wakeman, Mr. Benjamin Hays, Mr. L. G. Smith, Mr. John L. Deyo, and Miss Morehouse expected to go to Bridgeport last night, to attend the lecture to the Sunday school teachers of the Fairfield Association.

Mr. V. Brothwell and Mr. R. Bradley Jennings have been summoned to Bridgeport to serve on the jury.

Mr. and Mrs. Judd Bulkeley have had an addition to their family in the form of a little boy.

This afternoon the Ladies Union of Greenfield Hill met with Miss Gray. Mr. C. B. Todd of Florida is visiting Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Sherwood.

Tuesday evening next, at 7:45, there will be a lecture on the care of trees at the Pequot library. Mr. C. F. Whitaker will be the speaker. The discourse is to be illustrated and is given under the auspices of the Farmer's club of Greenfield Hill.

The monthly report of the library for February has just been made public. The visitors numbered 89, adult readers 606, and juvenile readers 341, a total of 1796. The books taken out during the month amount to 2,232, as follows: fiction 679; history 202; biography 140; travel 132; literature 104; fine arts 50; useful arts 11; science 104; philosophy 13; religion 27; philosophy 10; general works 181.

An improved smoke consumer has been set up in Hollywood Inn. It is regarded as quite a curiosity and consumes even tobacco smoke.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Ambler are home from Stamford.

SIMPLE REMEDY FOR LA GRIPPE.

BRIDGEPORT A GREYNA GREEN

BROOKLYN COUPLE PREPARES FOR THE INAUGURAL BY RUNNING AWAY TO GET MARRIED.

Bridgeport is sustaining its reputation as a Greytna Green for runaway couples. The latest comes from a New York newspaper of Wednesday which says:

Among those who will see Mr. Taft in August will be two young Brooklynites who, in their anxiety to be present at the ceremony, eloped a week ago. They are Pembroke Finlayson, of the Brooklyn National Baseball team, but this year drafted to Brockton, Mass., and Miss Catherine Huss, daughter of a retired merchant living at Fortieth street and Eleventh avenue.

The wedding was scheduled for March 6, but the bride-to-be expressed a desire to spend the day taking the oath of office. Finlayson said: "Let's elope and go there." Miss Huss approved, and it was decided to start Feb. 24. The couple went to Bridgeport, Conn., where the ceremony was performed by Rev. W. M. Brown. Then they proceeded to Washington, where they will arrive tomorrow.

The worry caused by the young couple's absence was dispelled yesterday when a long distance telephone message from the elopers was received at the Finlayson home. Fifty-fifth street and New Utrecht avenue.
